

UCA ALL AMERICAN INFORMATION

Each cheer squad attending UCA camp can nominate squad members to compete for the honor of being named "UCA All American". All seniors are eligible to tryout. If there are no seniors, then a maximum of six squad members may be nominated to tryout.

Selection Process

Each candidate will perform the Xtreme dance routine, a camp cheer and a jump. All American tryouts are usually held the third day of camp. The head instructor will let you know the exact time and location of the All American tryout. Candidates will tryout in groups of three or more.

Sophomore, Junior and Senior All Americans will have the opportunity to perform in the London Parade, New Year's Day before one million spectators lining the parade route. The travel dates are December 26, 2009 – January 2, 2010. The UCA staff chaperones the All Americans to ensure their safety and fun! Sophomore, Junior and Senior All Americans are also eligible to attend the Thanksgiving Events as well, based on the state in which they attend camp. If you have any questions, e-mail: mfultz@varsityspirit.com.

Junior High and Junior Varsity All Americans will have the opportunity to perform in the Houston Thanksgiving Day Parade, Philadelphia Thanksgiving Day Parade or the UCA/UDA Thanksgiving Tour at the Walt Disney World Resort based on the state in which they attend camp. The dates are November 24-27, 2009.

Cheer, Xtreme Routine, Home Dance, Superior Trophy Winners and Mascot All Americans are eligible to perform in the Capital One Bowl Tour, December 29, 2009 – January 2, 2010 in Orlando, Florida.

Specific brochures for all events will be distributed at camp. Please see individual brochures for payment deadlines. If you do not receive a brochure at camp, call the UCA office immediately at 1-888-CHEERUCA.

ADDITIONAL UCA SPECIAL EVENT OPPORTUNITES

Sophomore, Junior and Senior captains and co-captains may travel to New York City from November 21-27, 2009 and perform in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, "The Longest Running Show on Broadway" before a worldwide audience of 60 million people. No tryout is necessary. This is not an All American Event. Space is limited. If you have questions, please contact medwards@varsityspirit.com.
